

I live in Ratoath it is great to live in because there is more peace and it is less built up than say Dublin. There are alot of kids to hang-out with in Ratoath. The bad things about Ratoath are that are no leisure centers [centres] or things to do for all ages. Like for estence [instance] my friend and me mad a scrambling and riding track beside woodlands and the field it is in is being dug up for more houses. There is no secondery [secondary] school so kids have to travel to get to school and the cars outside Ryan is very dangerous.
